Ritz Cinema Guided Tour

Heritage Open Day

On Sat 13 Sep there will be Free Guided Tours on the hour from 10am until 5pm (last tour 4pm). Numbers are limited to 20 per tour - no booking, just turn up at the Ritz Cinema, Thirsk.

The cinema is over 100 years old and has been run by volunteers for 30 years. It is offering behind the scenes tours, to areas not normally open to the public. The tours will be guided by experienced volunteers who will take visitors to areas that cannot normally be seen whilst the cinema is operating and explain the history of the building as a Mechanics Institute.

This is our 30th year as a volunteer cinema and that will be celebrated on the day. An exhibition will be available to view.

Football Tried To Forget Paris

Ritz Cinema, Westgate, Thirsk YO7 1QS

Paris 75 - The European Cup Final Football Tried To Forget (documentary - not subtitled). A unique look at a season and, ultimately, a match steeped in controversy and myth which defined the identity of a club, its supporters and, arguably, a city, that endures to this day, bringing to a crashing end an era in football never witnessed before or since.
